Firm Overview

Keller Lenkner LLC is a national law firm that represents a broad array of clients as plaintiffs in complex litigation at the trial and appellate levels. We act for plaintiffs in federal and state court across a variety of claims and practice areas. We seek out complicated cases—frequently class actions or matters in multiple jurisdictions—where our legal and strategic counsel can add significant value.

Our lawyers have litigated “bet the company” cases for plaintiffs and defendants, served at the highest levels of government, and managed more than $1 billion of litigation-related investments. Although we come from a wide range of backgrounds and experiences, we share an unwavering commitment to excellence in advocating on behalf of our clients.

Our lawyers embrace challenges—drawing on their unique backgrounds to litigate complicated litigation matters. Our experience includes:

- Litigating significant cases for plaintiffs in state and federal courts throughout the country.
- Clerking at the Supreme Court of the United States, federal courts of appeals, and federal district courts.
- Serving as defense counsel at leading AmLaw firms and commercial litigation boutiques.
- Acting as in-house counsel for a Fortune 50 company and a leading business advocacy group.
- Co-founding the world’s largest private litigation finance firm.

We offer several advantages to our clients and co-counsel partners:

- Our expertise extends across all types of complex disputes in federal and state court.
- Before litigating for plaintiffs, we served as defense counsel and in-house counsel, which helps us anticipate our opponents’ moves and better understand their litigation and negotiation strategies
- Our team includes former district court, court of appeals, and Supreme Court law clerks, providing us valuable insights into crafting legal arguments and communicating them to courts.
- Our founders have significant finance experience managing litigation-related investments, which helps them assess litigation outcomes and add expertise to cases involving financial services or products.
- We value our relationships with our clients and co-counsel above all else.

Ashley C. Keller Partner

Ashley Keller is a Partner at Keller Lenkner LLC. He is a seasoned trial and appellate lawyer with deep substantive knowledge across a wide variety of practice areas and types of claims.

Ashley co-founded the litigation finance firm Gerchen Keller Capital, which grew to more than $1.3 billion in assets under management and was the world's largest private investment manager focused on legal and regulatory risk before it was acquired by Burford Capital in 2016. Every year since 2016, Lawdragon has named Ashley as one of the "100 Leading Legal Consultants and Strategists."

Before co-founding Gerchen Keller, Ashley was a partner at Bartlit Beck Herman Palenchar & Scott LLP, The American Lawyer's litigation boutique of the year, where he handled various trial and appellate matters involving multi-billion-dollar securities and patent cases, contractual disputes, mass torts, and class actions.

Ashley also worked as an analyst at Alyeska Investment Group, a Chicago-based market neutral hedge fund, where he focused on investments in companies facing litigation and other complicated regulatory matters.

Before practicing law, Ashley was a law clerk for Justice Anthony M. Kennedy at the Supreme Court of the United States and Judge Richard Posner at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. He graduated magna cum laude from Harvard College and received an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business and a J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School, where he graduated first in his class.

Travis D. Lenkner Managing Partner

Travis Lenkner is the Managing Partner of Keller Lenkner LLC. The firm's clients benefit from his experience as a legal entrepreneur and investment manager, a litigator at one of the world's leading law firms, in-house counsel at a Fortune 50 company, and a law clerk at the Supreme Court of the United States.

Travis and his two partners at Keller Lenkner previously co-founded the litigation finance firm Gerchen Keller Capital, which they grew to more than $1.3 billion in assets under management before it was acquired by Burford Capital in 2016.

Travis is a frequent speaker at legal seminars across the country and is quoted in the media as an expert on the Supreme Court, complex litigation matters, and the economics of the legal industry. He has appeared on CNN, CNBC, Bloomberg TV and Radio, Fox Business, and Chicago's WTTW, as well as in the pages of The Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Forbes, Chicago Tribune, The American Lawyer, Law360, Politico, National Law Journal, and Crain's Chicago, among others. Every year since 2016, Lawdragon has named Travis as one of the "100 Leading Legal Consultants and Strategists."

Prior to helping launch Gerchen Keller, Travis was a Senior Counsel at The Boeing Company, the world's largest aerospace firm and the leading manufacturer of commercial jetliners and defense, space, and security systems. While at Boeing, he represented the company in litigation matters and advised senior executives on significant regulatory issues.

Previously, Travis was a litigation and appellate attorney in the New York and Washington offices of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, where he represented clients in complex civil and criminal disputes before the Supreme Court and other tribunals.

Travis served as a law clerk for Justice Anthony M. Kennedy at the Supreme Court of the United States and Judge Brett M. Kavanaugh at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit. He earned his law degree from the University of Kansas School of Law, where he was Editor-in-Chief of the Kansas Law Review, and his undergraduate degree from Kansas State University.
